Mayor's Letter

I would like to begin this month by thanking the many, many people involved in making our tree lighting and holiday kick-off event on November 23 such a success. Staff did a fantastic job in preparing things, Councilmember Perkins and fellow residents organized and ran the popular firelight night, Visit Occoquan promoted and arranged business participation, and participants came from near and far to enjoy this festive annual Occoquan tradition. It was truly a team effort and I am grateful to all of you.

Holiday-themed events of course continue at a frenetic pace this month. Some town businesses will be open late on December 6, 13, and 20, and I hope you will consider patronizing them for your holiday shopping needs. The related Shop, Dine & Win! Contest will continue through December 15. On December 7, Santa will arrive by boat at the town docks at 10:30 a.m. and will lead a Sing-A-Long in River Mill Park for children of all ages. Our popular firelight nights will continue during the dark months of winter, with the next one occurring on December 13. We also have our Letters to Santa program running through December 15 and our Un-Trim-A-Tree project ending soon on December 2. There is more information on all of these elsewhere in this newsletter and on the town web site (www.occoquanva.gov).

Among the recent bittersweet happenings, we bid a fond farewell to our long-time Maintenance Supervisor, Bucky Brill, who retired after 21 years of service to the town. All of us who have known Bucky for an extended period of time and appreciate how he has been a consistent, steady presence as Occoquan has gone through numerous changes over the past two decades. While we wish him well in retirement, we hope to see him often in the future.

As I did last year, I would like to ask everyone to please check their mail regularly during the holiday season as the staff in the Post Office get inundated with packages when people travel. Checking your mail regularly really helps speed things up for everyone. As always, thank you for your support and please do not hesitate to contact me at epor-ta@occoquanva.gov with any comments, questions, or concerns. Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays, and Happy New Year to everyone!
