Mayor's Letter

There are two important dates to keep in mind this month if you're interested in the town budget and tax rates for fiscal year 2026, which begins July 1. First, the May 6 Town Council meeting will include a public hearing on the town's proposed budget, which was developed and presented over the last several months at town council meetings and work sessions. Then, at the Town Council meeting on May 20, there will be a public hearing on the proposed tax rates, followed later that evening by votes to adopt both the tax rates and the budget for FY 2026. These public hearings provide another opportunity for residents to express their views regarding the proposed budget and tax rates before the town council votes. No tax rate increases have been proposed. For more information on the proposed budget and tax rates, as well as on the public hearings, go to the town's official web site at www.occoquanva.gov.

As the weather warms, we move into a different event season in town. Our popular monthly Trivia Nights in River Mill Park begin on Friday, May 16, and on May 3rd, from 10:00 a.m. to noon in Town Hall we will be hosting an Occoquan Volunteer fair. The latter provides a chance for folks of all ages and abilities to discover volunteer opportunities in town and connect with representatives from the town, Visit Occoquan, and other nonprofit groups who are looking for folks to help out on a wide variety of activities. This is an open house-type event so show up any time between 10:00 and noon; no rsvp is required and refreshments will be served.

I also want to mention that one of our council members, Nancy Freeborne-Brinton, is beginning a new job and given the travel it involves has resigned from the Council. We appreciate Nancy's service to our community and wish her well in her new position. Former councilmember, Bob Love, has been appointed to fill her seat until a special election in November. In addition to welcoming Bob to the Council, I also want to welcome a new member of the Planning Commission, Rich Grant—we appreciate your willingness to serve as well.

Once again, thank you all for your support and please do not hesitate to contact me at eporta@occoquanva.gov with any questions, comments, or concerns.
